FNBC, Lungpeola Sayai Scholarship

Background

First Naga Baptist Church is pleased to announce the Lungpeola Sayai Scholarship, established in memory of the late Mrs. Lungpeola Sayai, grandmother of Chuingachan Shokwungnao and one of the pioneers of Christianity in Tashar Village, Manipur. Her legacy of faith, love, and devotion to Christ lives on through this scholarship, which supports Naga students in the United States preparing for full-time Christian ministry.

Eligibility Criteria

Applicants must:

1. Be a member of FNBC or a Naga student currently studying in the United States.
2. Be a born-again Christian and actively involved in a local church.
3. Demonstrate a call to full-time Christian ministry.
4. Be currently enrolled as an active student.
5. Submit one letter of recommendation from a professor.
6. Demonstrate financial need, with preference given to those with greater need.
7. Preference will be given to applicants who did not receive the scholarship last year.

Selection Process

- Applications will be prayerfully reviewed by the Church Executive.
- Application deadline: November 8, 2026.
- Incomplete or late submissions will not be considered.
- All applicants will be notified of the outcome within two weeks via email.
- Three recipients will each receive $500 on Thanksgiving Sunday, November 22.
